Introduction

ASPA is the Asian Surf Performance Academy; ASPA it's about reaching your highest potential as an athlete, in and out of the water. Our goal is to empower and support excellent surfers to break through their limits and become the best surfer they can be. The Asian Surf Performance Academy is located in Bali and aims to promote, support and accompany the best sportsmen and athletes in the world of surfing. Offering athletes a personalised attention where we not only seek to improve their surfing level but also to acquire new professional attributes such as; achievement motivation, team work, sense of commitment, responsibility, etc.

ASPA has launched the inaugural program for Tipi Jabrik's Grom Patrol 2024. The ASPA Rising Star Camp will provide a training camp before and during the Grom Patrol competition. This program aims to promote, support, and mentor the best young surfers.

ASPAC Rising Star Camp Surfer Results

The selected surfers for the ASPAC (ASIAN SURFING PERFORMANCE ACADEMY) Rising Star Camp 2 have been trained before and during the 2024 Tipi Jabrik's Grom Patrol Stop 2.

Before the competition, the ASPAC surfers underwent physical training with Gabriela Mackanic at the Mamaka Hotel gym to prepare themselves. During the competition, they were supported and coached through the heats with scoring criteria and competition strategies by the Surf Mickey Sudena. The training and coaching provided by ASPAC contributed to the good performance of our surfers, which was reflected in the results:

In the "Under 12 Boys" category, I Wayan Agus Jho Ananda Sastrawan reached the semifinals, while Sang Bagus Made Subawa Girinatha Vijaya became the champion, taking 1st place. Diki Anwar secured 3rd place, and Dika Anwar also reached the semifinals. Farel Zlatanera Wau advanced to the quarterfinals, and I Wayan Miyura Yano Jaya made it to the semifinals, just like Zio Jeksen, who was eliminated in Round 2. In the "Under 12 Girls" category, Amanah Putri Annisa reached the quarterfinals. In the "Under 14 Boys" category, I Wayan Miyura Yano Jaya and Rico Bastian Winggin reached the semifinals. Finally, in the "Under 16 Girls" category, Ni Putu Yuni Widiyanti also reached the semifinals.

Conclusion

Coached by Mickey Sudena and managed by Juan Gorostidi, the selected surfers underwent rigorous training. Before the competition, they participated in physical training sessions with Gabriela Mackanic at the Mamaka Hotel gym. During the competition, they received strategic coaching from Mickey Sudena, who guided them through scoring criteria and competition strategies.

The achievements of the surfers are a testament to the high level of skill and dedication among the young surfers, as well as the quality of the training and support provided by ASPA. The individual statistics of the surfers further highlight their exceptional performances, with impressive scores that reflect their competitive edge. For example, Sang Bagus Made Subawa Girinatha Vijaya achieved the best single ore of 8.67 and the best combination score of 15.20 in the Under 12 Boys category.

Overall, the ASPA Rising Star Camp has successfully demonstrated its commitment to fostering young surfing talent by offering personalised training and support, resulting in strong competitive performances. The academy's holistic approach to athlete development ensures that young surfers not only excel in their sport but also acquire essential professional skills, preparing them for future success both in and out of the water.
