Introduction

ASPA is the Asian Surf Performance Academy; ASPA it's about reaching your highest potential as an athlete, in and out of the water. Our goal is to empower and support excellent surfers to break through their limits and become the best surfer they can be. The Asian Surf Performance Academy is located in Bali and aims to promote, support and accompany the best sportsmen and athletes in the world of surfing. Offering athletes a personalised attention where we not only seek to improve their surfing level but also to acquire new professional attributes such as; achievement motivation, team work, sense of commitment, responsibility, etc.

ASPA has launched the inaugural program for Tipi Jabrik's Grom Patrol 2024. The ASPA Rising Star Camp will provide a training camp before and during the Grom Patrol competition. This program aims to promote, support, and mentor the best young surfers.

ASPAC Rising Star Camp Surfer Results

The selected surfers for the ASPAC (ASIAN SURFING PERFORMANCE ACADEMY) Rising Star Camp have been trained before and during the Tipi Jabrik's Grom Patrol Stop 1.

Before the competition, the ASPAC surfers underwent physical training with Gabriela Mackanic at the Mamaka Hotel gym to prepare themselves. During the competition, they were supported and coached through the heats with scoring criteria and competition strategies by the Surf Coach Dedi Santosa. The training and coaching provided by ASPAC contributed to the good performance of our surfers, which was reflected in the results:

In the Under 12 Boys category, I Wayan Agus Jho Ananda Sastrawan achieved 2nd place, Shia Jabrik 4th place, and Sang Bagus Made Subawa Girinatha Vijaya was eliminated in the second round. In Under 14 Boys, I Gede Hinang Ridwan Darma Wisesa secured 2nd place, Shia Jabrik 4th place, and Aditya Somya reached the semifinals. In Under 16 Boys, I Gede Hinang Ridwan Darma Wisesa placed 4th, and Aditya Somya reached the quarterfinals. In Under 16 Girls, Hanasuri Jabrik achieved 4th place, Ni Putu Yuni Widiyanti reached the quarterfinals, and Isabel Faye Higgs won 1st place. In the Under 18 Boys category, Rafli Wau achieved 3rd place. Finally, in Under 18 Girls, Isabel Faye Higgs placed 4th, and Hanasuri Jabrik achieved 2nd place.

Conclusion

Coached by Dedi Santosa and managed by Juan Gorostidi, the selected surfers underwent rigorous training. Before the competition, they participated in physical training sessions with Gabriela Mackanic at the Mamaka Hotel gym. During the competition, they received strategic coaching from Dedi Santosa, who guided them through scoring criteria and competition strategies.

The training and support provided by ASPA contributed to the excellent performance of the surfers, as evidenced by their results in the Grom Patrol competition:

The surfers' individual statistics also highlighted their impressive performances. For example, I Wayan Agus Jho Ananda Sastrawan (Under 12 Boys) achieved a best single score of 8.00 and a best combination of 14.67. Shia Jabrik (Under 12 Boys) had a best single score of 8.50 and a best combination of 15.67. Isabel Faye Higgs (Under 16 Girls) achieved a best single score of 8.43 and a best combination of 16.20.

Overall, the ASPA Rising Star Camp has successfully demonstrated its commitment to fostering young surfing talent by offering personalised training and support, resulting in strong competitive performances. The academy's holistic approach to athlete development ensures that young surfers not only excel in their sport but also acquire essential professional skills, preparing them for future success both in and out of the water.
